NMG u nazivu našeg programa NMG@PRAKTIKA, koji provodimo već desetu godinu za redom, označava je za NovoMedijsku Galeriju, koja nije imala namjera označavati fizički prostor, već prostor eksperimenta i interdisciplinarnosti te istraživanja, produkcije i prezentacije suvremenih hibridnih umjetničkih formi, kao i suradnji umjetnika i kustosa, teoretičara i publike. Slučaj ili sreća je htjela da galeriju Kluba Kocka (bijvu Praktiku, odakle drugi dio kovance NMG@PRAKTIKA) koristimo već desetu godinu za redom te je i dalje smatramo privremenim prostorom izvedbe našeg projekta, ali osnovne konceptualne okosnice programa koji donosimo ostale su od početka iste. I zato se jako veselimo da vam možemo prezentirati jedan izrazito suvremeni umjetnički rad koreografinje i kulturne radnice Sonje Pregrad, koji je u svojoj srži hibridan, pa se tako sastoji od izvedbe i izložbe, koji se istovremeno međusobno sučeljavaju i surađuju, isprepleću i nadopunjavaju te tvore jedan kompleksan umjetnički projekt koji se suštinski bavi odnosom objekta i subjekta te uključuje publiku u samo nastajanje i izvedbe i izložbe, koje su samim time uvijek drugačije.

Hibridni eksperimentalni umjetnički projekt Sonje Pregrad „Karnevalski šator hrđa na jesenjem povjetarcu – ras/pakiravanje predmetnosti“ nastaje kao zaključak sedmogodišnjeg radnog ciklusa koreografinje na temu objektnosti tijela, pokreta i umjetničkog rada. Sam rad rekontekstualizacija je njezina završnog rada na diplomskom studiju Solo/plex/autorstvo (MA Solo/Dance/Authorship) u Berlinu 2013. godine. Prva polovica naslova ovog umjetničkog rada funkcioniра kao pjesnička slika koja se odnosi na zgradu kazališta – njenu funkciju (karnevalski šator, prostor društvenog spektakla) i njenu objektnost (hrđanje u večernjim satima dok je predstava). Drugi dio naslova ključni je princip rada i verbalni ključ gledateljima koji na neki način počinju raspakiravati ideju djela. Također upućuje na naslove velikih problemskih izložbi koji često imaju dva dijela, ilustrativni i programski. To je prisvajanje rečenice Grahama Harmana i primjer ponovnog pisanja, tj. materijalizacije teoretskih i umjetničkih referenci na vlastiti jezik strategija i materijala: ‘Karnevalski šator šušti na večernjem povjetaru, remeteći raspoloženje onih koji se približavaju..’

Prostor je mišljen dvoznačno, kao izložba i kao izvedba te se u njemu izvodi/izlaže devet objekata – rečenica ispisana na zidu, tinejdžerski dnevnik, kazalište kao dispozitiv pažnje, referenca na rad Meeting Point Sanje Ivezović, konfekcija kupljena u tvornici Kamensko u stecaju, izvedba kao predmet sačinjen od vremena i suprisonnosti tijela, šećer u kocki, predmeti posuđeni od publike te ples kao predmet. Koreografska, ali i općenito umjetnička igra s izmicanjem dispozitiva vizualnog i izvedbenog, materijalnog i nematerijalnog, konteksta i apstrakcije, razlozi su koji ovom radu daju relevantnost i zanimljivost unutar konteksta i izvedbenih i vizualnih umjetnosti, ali i mnogo šire. Pregrad na jedan vrlo promišljen i inovativan način isprepliće i problematizira cijeli niz simbola vješto koreografski naginjući prostor i vrijeme. U svojoj izvedbi otkriva nam sloj po sloj te nas onda aktivno i uključuje u finaliziranje umjetničkog procesa.

The NMG — New media gallery is an international curatorial platform focused on research projects related to the issues of active participation in a contemporary society which result in new curatorial concepts, intermedia events, international new media collaborations and the creation of new media projects. NMG@PRAKTIKA is an event program within the platform. A cycle of exhibits by independent young artists from Croatia and abroad are regularly organized in the Klub Kocka Gallery located at the Youth Center in Split. The tenth such cycle is currently underway and has so far seen the successful execution of more than eighty solo and group exhibitions by young artists. Through new media and the practice of experimentation with different forms of artistic expression, the exhibitions discuss current issues of contemporary society. This exhibition cycle, therefore, not only provides insight into recent art practices, but also actively participates, by virtue of the artist selection process, in the positioning of contemporary art as a critical factor in tension with social reality.

The "NMG" part of the title of our program NMG @ PRAKTIKA, which we are implementing for the tenth year in a row, is a label for NewMedia Gallery. Its intention was not to mark a physical space, but a space for experimentation, interdisciplinarity and research, production and presentation of contemporary hybrid art forms as well as collaboration between artists and curators, theorists and audiences. Fate, or luck, wanted us to use the Klub Kocka gallery (former "Praktika" - root of the second part of the "NMG@PRAKTIKA" title) for the tenth year in a row. We still consider it to be a temporary space for our project, but the basic conceptual backbone of the program remains the same. And that is why we are very much looking forward to presenting you a very contemporary work of art by a choreographer and cultural worker Sonja Pregrad. The work is a hybrid at its core, consisting of performance and exhibition, which simultaneously confront and collaborate, intertwine and complement each other, creating thus a complex art project that essentially deals with the relationship between object and subject, including the audience in the very creation of performances and exhibitions, which are therefore always different.

Sonja Pregrad's hybrid experimental art project "Carnival Tent Rust in the Autumn Breeze - un/packing of objecthood" is the culmination of a seven-year work cycle on the subject of body objectivity, movement and art. The work itself is a recontextualization of her final work at the MA Solo / Dance / Authorship graduate study in Berlin in 2013. The first half of the title of this work functions as a poetic image related to the building of the theater - its function (carnival tent, space of social spectacle) and its objectivity (rusting in the evening during the show). The second part of the title is a key principle of work and a verbal key to viewers who in some way begin to unpack the idea of the work. It also refers to the titles of major problem exhibitions that often have two parts: illustrative and programmatic. It is the appropriation of Graham Harman's sentence and an example of rewriting, i.e. materializing theoretical and artistic references in one's own language of strategies and materials: 'The carnival tent rustles in the evening breeze, disturbing the mood of those approaching..'

The space is meant ambiguously, as an exhibition and as a performance, and it performs/exhibits nine objects - a sentence written on the wall, a teenage diary, theater as a dispositif of attention, a reference to the work of "Meeting Point" by Sanja Ivezović, clothing purchased at the bankrupt Kamensko factory, performance as an object made up of time and the presence of the body, sugar cubes, objects borrowed from the audience, and dance as an object. Choreographic, but also - in general - artistic play with evasion of the dispositif of visual and performative, material and immaterial, context and abstraction, are the reasons that can give this work relevance and intrigue within the context of performance and visual arts and beyond. In a very thoughtful and innovative way, Pregrad intertwines and problematizes a whole range of symbols, while skillfully tilting space and time in a choreographical manner. She is revealing this layer by layer in her performance, and then actively includes us in finalizing the artistic process.
